

Top Interior Paint Colors for 2024

It's time to refresh your living spaces with the hottest interior paint colors of the year. Whether you're looking to stage your home for a quick sale or simply want a refresh, these trending hues will inspire you to create stunning interiors.

1. Tranquil Teal

Teal continues to be a favorite, offering a perfect balance between blue and green. This calming color is ideal for bedrooms and bathrooms, creating a serene and peaceful atmosphere. Pair it with white trim and natural wood accents for a fresh and modern look. Try Sherwin Williams Intense Teal or Tame Teal.

2. Earthy Terracotta

Terracotta brings warmth and a touch of nature into any room. This earthy hue works beautifully in living rooms and kitchens, adding a cozy and inviting feel. Complement terracotta with neutral tones and greenery to enhance its natural charm. Give Benjamin Moore Baked Tera Cotta a try!

3. Elegant Navy

Navy blue is timeless and sophisticated, making it a top choice for 2024. Use it in dining rooms or as an accent wall in your living room to add depth and elegance. Pair navy with metallic accents like gold or brass to create a luxurious and refined space. There are so many bold navy colors. Some of our favorites are Hale Navy or New York State of Mind by Benjamin Moore.

4. Soft Sage

Sage green is a versatile color that exudes tranquility and balance. Perfect for any room in your home, it works especially well in home offices and nurseries. Combine sage with soft pinks or warm neutrals for a soothing environment. A favorite is Sage Tint by Benjamin Moore.

5. Warm Taupe

Taupe is making a comeback as a go-to neutral for 2024. This warm, grayish-brown shade adds a touch of sophistication to any room without overpowering the space. Use taupe in your living areas or bedrooms and pair it with crisp white trim for a classic and elegant look. Benjamin Moore has so many good ones. Give Smokey Taupe or Shaker Beige a try.

6. Cheerful Coral

For those who love a pop of color, coral is the way to go. This vibrant, cheerful hue is perfect for accent walls, entryways, or even as a bold choice for cabinetry. Coral pairs beautifully with both warm and cool tones, making it a versatile addition to your color palette. Coral Rose by Sherwin Williams is beautiful.

7. Muted Mustard

Mustard yellow brings a touch of retro charm and warmth to your home. Use this muted shade in kitchens, dining rooms, or as an accent color in your living room. Pair it with deep blues or rich browns for a cozy and inviting look. Mustard Field by Sherwin Williams is the perfect blend of a muted yellow & warm tans.

Tips for Choosing the Right Paint Color:

Consider the Mood: Think about the atmosphere you want to create in each room. Calming colors are great for bedrooms, while vibrant hues work well in social spaces.

Test Samples: Paint small sections of your walls with sample colors to see how they look at different times of the day.

Compliment your Decor: Ensure your paint choices complement your existing furniture, flooring, and décor.

Think About Resale: If you're planning to sell, opt for neutral colors that appeal to a broad range of buyers.
